NatureReading - Afternoon

03:00 pm | AUSZEITHOF MOARHUBE

The clouds in the sky, the little plants by the side of the path, the wind in the trees - nature in all its diversity has an effect on us and has a lot to tell us. On the Moarhube, we take about 1.5 hours every first Wednesday from May to October. We engage with all our sensory and perceptual levels in one of these natural elements at a time, try to guess its hidden secrets and perhaps decipher the first letters in the great book of nature. Costs & registration: voluntary amount, without registration
